No Perfect Moms
Romans 3:27-31

I. No matter how hard a woman works; those efforts will never make her the perfect Mom. vs. 27-28

II. Even though the world is full of Moms who in the eyes of their children come close to perfection and have tremendously enhanced our world; their kid's salvation depends upon the one true God. vs. 29-30

III. As children mature they increasingly appreciate "Mom's Rules".

The value of God's rules "Commandments" do not diminish with an embracing of salvation by faith. vs. 31
